The Saint Mary's University Undergraduate and Graduate Calendar is published several months in advance of the beginning of the academic year. The Calendar assists readers to understand the academic and administrative structure, policies and procedures of the University, and describes the academic programs offered. Upon registration, each student becomes bound by the policies and regulations of Saint Mary's University. Students are responsible for being familiar with the general information, rules and regulations of Saint Mary's University, as well as the specific requirements of each program, degree, diploma or certificate that the student aims to achieve. It is the student's responsibility to choose courses that are appropriate to the program requirements.

If there is an inconsistency between the Undergraduate or Graduate Calendar and regulations and policies established by a resolution of Senate, the version of such material as it is established by Senate will take precedence and be binding on students. .

Saint Mary's University does not accept, and hereby expressly disclaims, any and all responsibility or liability to any person, persons or group, either direct or indirect, consequential or otherwise, arising out of any one or more of changes to the Calendar and, specifically, the University hereby disclaims liability to any person who may suffer loss as a result of reliance upon any information contained in the University Calendar. Additions and corrections will be posted at the Updates page, but are binding on students on their effective date as expressed by Senate and not on the date of publication or notice.
