

GRADUATE PROGRAMS: ARTS

In collaboration with the Faculty of Arts, graduate programs in eight areas are offered:

- Atlantic Canada Studies (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/atlantic-canada-studies-ma/>)
- Criminology (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/criminology-ma/>)
- Geography (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/geography-ma/>)
- Global Development Studies (Masters (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/global-development-studies-ma/>) and PhD (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/global-development-studies-phd/>))
- History (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/history-ma/>)
- International Master of Teaching English (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/international-master-teaching-english/>)
- Philosophy (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/philosophy-ma/>)
- Theology and Religious Studies (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/theology-religious-studies-ma/>)
- Women and Gender Studies (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/graduate/programs/women-gender-studies-ma/>)