

3. ACADEMIC ADVISING

a. Students are responsible for ensuring that they meet the requirements of their academic programs. Academic advising is available through Faculty advising offices. Academic Advisors are responsible for advising, guiding, and helping students make informed decisions on their academic progression from expression of interest in Saint Mary's through to graduation. Students are strongly urged to familiarize themselves with the Academic Calendar and available academic audit program in Banner.

b. Academic advising is particularly recommended for the following students:

(i) all students who are on academic probation as defined in Regulation 7d (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/undergraduate/academic-regulations/regulations/standing-required/>);

(ii) all students who do not attain a grade point average of at least 1.70 in any given semester;
