

GREEK (GREK)

GREK 1100 Introduction to Ancient Greek

6 credit hours

This course is an introduction to the major grammatical points of the ancient (Attic) Greek. Students will meet the challenges of learning an inflected language.

GREK 2200 Intermediate Ancient Greek

6 credit hours

Prerequisite: GREK 1100 or equivalent.

Students develop the techniques of ancient Greek-English translation. The first part of the course will continue the study of Attic Greek grammar; in the second part of the course, students apply their skills in translation by reading selections from ancient Greek prose and poetry.