

BACHELOR OF ARTS – GENERAL (DOUBLE ARTS CONCENTRATIONS)

B.A. students, in consultation with the designated Department and/or Program advisors, must formally declare the two (2) subject areas in the Faculty of Arts in which they wish to complete the Double Arts Concentration Requirement no later than following the completion of thirty (30) credit hours. For full-time students, this normally means by the end of their first year.

Students can do their B.A. Concentrations in the following fields of study:

- Anthropology
- Ancient Studies
- Asian Studies
- Atlantic Canada Studies
- Economics
- English
- French
- Geography
- German Studies
- Global Development Studies
- History
- Irish Studies
- Linguistics
- Mathematics
- Philosophy
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Religion
- Sociology
- Spanish

The regulations governing this program will be those in effect at the time of declaration.