Certificate in Human Resource Management

It is also possible for students in the Faculty of Arts to complete the Certificate in Human Resource Management either on a stand-alone basis through the Department of Psychology, or in combination with a Major in Psychology.

Certificate of Honours Equivalency

Students who have graduated from Saint Mary's University with a Bachelor of Arts – Major or Double Concentration may earn a Certificate of Honours Equivalency by returning to the University and completing all of the requirements specified for Honours in the subject.

Students who have earned a first undergraduate degree from another post-secondary institution may be admitted to the Certificate if they have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or above. Admission requires the approval of the appropriate department chairperson and the Dean. Advanced standing will be granted in accordance with Academic Regulation 19 (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/undergraduate/academic-regulations/regulations/advanced-standing/>). (<https://smu-ca-public.courseleaf.com/undergraduate/academic-regulations/regulations/transfer-credit-hours/>) Students must complete at least 30 additional credit hours at Saint Mary's and satisfy all course and grade requirements for the honours program.
