A minor in Indigenous Studies is available to undergraduate students in all three faculties. This minor offers students flexibility in their choice of disciplinary areas of study while promoting a broad interdisciplinary understanding of Aboriginal / Indigenous topics.

The Indigenous Studies minor has an evolving curriculum, dependent on course offerings in departments and programs. Since the development of new courses and changes to existing courses is an ongoing process, students interested in Indigenous Studies should consult with the BA Advising Centre about their specific program.

Program Minor in Indigenous Studies

As in interdisciplinary minor, students are required to earn 24 credit hours with a minimum GPA of 2.00 in Indigenous relevant courses with no more than 12 credit hours from any one discipline or interdisciplinary area and no more than 12 credit hours at the 1000 level.

For students pursuing this minor, courses are approved by the Associate Dean of Arts, Curriculum and Student Affairs.
